

Full Name: Dr Henri Jacobs

Institution/Organisation: Central University of Technology, Free State

Based In (Country): South Africa

Dr. Henri Jacobs is currently the Director of Work Integrated Learning & Industry Liaison at the Central University of Technology, Free State (CUT). He is a member of Universities South Africa (USAf) World of Work Strategy Group and chairperson of both USAf's Learning in Practice Community of Practice and THENSA's WIL task team. He has also served as THENSA's representative on the Occupational Qualifications Committee of the Quality Council for Trades and Occupations.

He has been involved in Work Integrated Learning for 25 years and obtained his Master's degree in higher education studies cum laude and a D.Tech. in Business Administration with a focus on WIL strategy to enhance the employability of students. He was the project manager to develop guidelines for universities in South Africa to follow regarding WIL in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic that were endorsed by the Minister for Higher Education, Science and Technology for implementation in the higher education system.

