

Full Name: Prof Nosisi N Feza

Institution/Organisation: University of Venda

Based In (County): South Africa

Prof Nosisi N Feza is a Deputy Vice Chancellor of Research and Postgraduate Studies at the University of Venda (Univen) in Thohoyandou. Before she joined UNIVEN she was a Rector of the Buffalo City Campus at Walter Sisulu University. She has also served as a Dean at the Central University of Technology coming from the University of South Africa as a Head of an Institute for Science and Technology Education. Prof Feza has also worked as a Senior Research Specialist at the Human Sciences Research Council.

Prof Feza has been actively involved in teaching and learning and research in her previous institutions of employment, University of Northern Iowa in the US as a Research Fellow, State University of New York as a research assistant and Nelson Mandela University focusing on mathematics education. She was recognised as an emerging scholar through a Fulbright scholarship, received an award of the inaugural Leroy and Margaret H. Callahan Scholarship from State University of New York, awarded as a Diversity scholar by Michigan University. She is a C-rated researcher by National Research Foundation.

